

Trash Cans Placed In City by V. F. W.

Commander Jiggs Gold and Bill Harbert of the Hamlin V. F. W. Post 6014 presented Mayor B. M. Brundage with three trash disposal cans Saturday.

Contribution of the cans is a part of the civic activities program of the VFW and it was explained by Post officials that additional cans will be donated if it is demonstrated that the people will use them.

The cans were placed at the front of Reynolds Drug, the Steak House and the Howard City Drug, these points being selected as most liable to receive cooperation from sidewalk passers-by.

Gold said that the local service organization is eager to furnish another group of cans but that it was voted to test the public reaction before providing them. The public seemed to manifest an early interest in the receptacles.

Student Council Group Going to Dallas Meet

The state conference for high school student councils will be held at Sunset high school in Dallas March 16 and 17.

Council of Hamlin High School will be represented at the conference by Jim Harwell, Don Johnson, Dorothy Altum, Gwen Norris and W. L. Fletcher.

B. V. Newberry will be the faculty member accompanying the group.

Boy Scouts Observe Week With Display

Members of Hamlin Boy Scout Troop 43 participated in general observance of Boy Scout Week and Saturday found the troop busy in demonstrations of their work.

Three patrols of the local troop erected displays at the club room adjacent to the fire hall and visitors to the display were asked to vote on the most effective handiwork.

At two o'clock a traffic accident was simulated wherein Travis Stevens was struck by a car and first aid was administered on the spot. The demonstration was made more vivid through the use of a Barrow Funeral Home ambulance.

Additional display of Scout projects is on view in the D. & H. Department Store window.

In preparation for an active Scouting season, the Hamlin organization has been extensively reorganized. W. R. Milroy, new employee of the Celotex Company, has been named as Scoutmaster. Milroy has had 17 years of experience in Scout work and his methods are adding new interest to the movement here. Jack Owens and Jerry Woggoner have accepted appointment as assistants to Milroy.

Another move in the reorganization finds Dr. William S. Seals, Hamlin dentist, installed as advisor to the Explorers.

Poll Taxes Gain Over Previous Years When Vote Interest Lags

Reports emanating from the office of Elzy Bennett, Jones County Tax Assessor-Collector, reveal a total of 3,260 poll taxes were issued by his office.

Poll tax payments fell short of the total for 1949, but it is explained that last year was an election year and non-election years always lag in interest to the voters.

Receipts for the current year were 877 under the total for the previous year but exceeded the last non-election year by 333.

Pipers Play Roby In Season's Finale As Track Looms

Hamlin's A and B team basketballers were left without opponents Tuesday night when the Rotan Yellowhammers asked to be excused from their scheduled appearance here.

Threat of bad weather and lack of interest in a losing team was offered by the Yellowhammers as reason for the cancellation. The request was granted by Hamlin and the game was classed as forfeited by a score of 2-0.

Humorous note was added to the situation when the Rotan coach admitted that this would be the closest score of their season.

As a substitute activity for the Rotan cancellation, the B team and the Pipers met Tuesday night and appeared in a March of Dimes benefit there.

The B team boys eked out a 38-36 victory over the McCauley cagers and the girls had their most successful appearance in opposition to McCauley when they were beaten 34-26. McCauley's girls have demonstrated a marked superiority over the Pipers in previous games.

The basketball game tonight at Roby for the A and B teams will terminate the season for the Pipers and the hope is that Hamlin should score victories in these final contests.

Track and field events will assume prime importance among athletes at Hamlin High School after the final basketball game.

The new track oval has been laid out for use of the squad and the boys are waiting for workout weather to get down to trim for the spring events. First information from Coach Jess Burditt is that the squad should be strong in the middle distance events and the Pipers have their sights set on winning the third leg on the two-mile relay cup which they have defended at Brady.

A large squad awaits the starting gun in this training.

Late winter is a danger season for rickets and vitamin A deficiency in farm animals.

Even a slight change in feeding schedule can cause a digestive upset in young animals, just as it does in human beings.

Redistricting of Jones County With Taylor Opposed to Representatives

Strong opposition is still being voiced by many Jones County citizens to the proposal to annex Jones County to Taylor for the purpose of allocating representatives in the state legislature. The redistricting bill, which is now being drafted at Austin, has one representative allotted to Taylor County and a second representative to represent the two counties.

When word was first received in this area about this proposal, telegrams were sent to Representative David W. Ratliff, protesting the plan. It was generally felt that the two counties had little in common and that it would be difficult for a Jones County man to be named to the office.

At the present time Jones and Shackelford Counties for the 115th district. The state constitution says that the state shall be redistricted after every federal census but the legislature has failed to carry out this provision since the 1930 census.

When the present bill was first drafted, Jones County was tied in with Haskell and Throckmorton. Representative Clyde Whiteside of Seymour objected to this, not desiring to lose Haskell County. Then it was proposed that Jones, Stonewall and Shackelford Counties be joined.

Representative Harley Sadler, of Abilene is a member of the committee drafting the measure in the House and he was shown all the telegrams of objection received by Ratliff. Sadler then wrote letters to all of those who protested, endeavoring to point out that Jones County would not be hurt by the plan.

Ratliff was home for the weekend and urged further support of his fight against the measure. He said, "There just isn't any need for it. The district can be worked out on a more equitable basis."

In his support of the bill, Sadler cited the cordial relationship that has existed between Abilene civic bodies and Jones County and advanced the opinion that two representatives from that city will be of benefit to the area.

Larger Quarters To Be Asked for Mails

The post office department has authorized Postmaster Perry Sparks to post a notice of acceptance of bids for the lease of premises for Hamlin's post office.

The proposal stipulates that a building with approximately 2,500 feet of floor space will be required for the transaction of the post office business here and owners of property of this size are invited to bid.

Sparks informed The Herald a firm had built the Hamlin building now occupied by the post office as one of a group in West Texas and this firm might enter a bid after they had extended the present building to increase floor space. It is understood that a number of Hamlin property owners have indicated an interest in the proposal.

The lease will be executed on a ten-year basis and the office has occupied its present quarters for two ten-year periods.

Program chairman Nig Stringer introduced J. E. Paterson, local real estate man, who brought a description of the early life in the Indian Territory of Oklahoma among the Comanches. Paterson told of the trials of his father as a missionary preacher among the Indian tribes and the rugged life that was lived by a young boy.

A surprising number were in attendance at the meeting despite the inclement weather.

CUE STICK CUTIES — Young London ladies are more often associated with tepid tea and outstretched pinkies than the fine, and usually manly, art of making the six off of the seven into the side pocket. But that's exactly what Clair Hackett (left) of Bourne-mouth, Hampshire, and Maureen Barratt of Peckham are doing. They're shown "cue-ing off" for the Girls' Pool championship at Burroughs Watts Hall.

Writer Warns of Danger Found in Sale Of Farms Without Considering Taxes

Ed's Note—The following story is run because of area farmers interest in their lands. It is not necessarily the beliefs or thoughts of this paper.

C. L. Garrett, local farmer, handed the following story to a Herald reporter for area farmers thoughts. It was run in the Farmer-Stockman and is by Josh M. Drake Jr.

Title is, "Think Before Selling Your Farm."

"Beware of the man who offers you what seems to be a good price for your farm."

Farm prices are usually high but if you sold your farm for $15,000, $20,000 or even $30,000 you would have to pay a large amount of that to the government in the form of income tax.

Since World War II, I have seen big operators, who are known as windshield farmers in my part of the country, buy up one small farm after another. Hundreds of small farmers sold out for what seemed at the time to be a good profit. Most of these farmers bought homes in town and planned to retire.

Today many of these retired farmers are working as common laborers in order to combat the rising cost of city living. Instead of spending their declining years in comfort they are working harder than they ever worked before. Many farmers who sold their farms to buy homes in town forgot that on the farm they had depended on the cow, sow, hen, orchard and garden to practically feed them.

On the farm their cellars had been stocked with canned foods and they had had fresh meat in their frozen food lockers. They found that in most towns there are city ordinances against keeping cows and chickens within the city limits. Some back yards were large enough for gardens but few yielded enough for canning purposes.

After the farmer moved to town he found that his grocery bill had tripled. The price of fuel was higher and property taxes were higher, especially when he had to pay paving taxes.

In the past month I have talked to 20 men who sold their farms and moved to town. All but one of them are sorry they sold their land. All but two say they have to work in order to pay their bills.

A few years ago you could have lived comfortably in the city for years after selling a farm. Now a bank account won't last long unless you have a steady income. If you stay on your farm you can be assured of food and a roof over your head.

Last summer while traveling over 30 states I was shocked at the number of vacant farm houses I saw. These houses that had once been fine homes were standing in patches of weeds while the shingles blew off the roofs and the window glasses fell out.

It made me sad because somehow the reminded me of their former owners who were now slowly wasting their lives away in the city, regretting the day they sold their farms.

Something must be done to stop farmers from selling out to big operators who hire dozens of men and farm thousands of acres. In order to stay strong and independent our nation must keep the small farmer.

The farmer who inherited his farm from his father and passes it on to his children is the backbone of the great middle class of America. We should have more families on the farm instead of less. If our small farmers sell their property we will soon have only the very rich and the very poor in our country. If the farmer ever allows that to happen we will cease to be a democracy.

If you feel that you are not physically able to farm your land, rent it on the shares or lease it for cash, but do not sell it. Few people can hold onto a large sum of money. Money can be lost, squandered or stolen but as long as you have your land you and yours will be assured of a living."

Find Molds For Gel Cookery Dishes in Everyday Kitchen Articles

Successful gel-cookery doesn't call for an investment in elaborate molds. Appetizing dishes made with unflavored gelatin can be molded in containers found in most every kitchen. A coffee can is used to mold a main dish; mixed vegetables go back into their own can container to mold into cylindrical shape. Desserts are molded in an orange shell custard cup, or a fluted paper cup mold.

Basic Fruit Gelatine

1 envelope unflavored gelatin 1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup cold fruit juice 1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups hot fruit juice

Soften gelatin in cold fruit juice. Add hot fruit juice, sugar and salt; stir until dissolved. Pour into large or individual molds and chill until firm. YIELD: 4 servings.

For Tomato Aspic: Omit sugar, increase salt to 1/2 teaspoon; add 1/2 teaspoon onion juice or other seasonings, if desired.

Molded Sea Food: Make Tomato Aspic. When gelatin is slightly thickened fold in 1 cup cut shrimp, shredded crab meat or tuna.

Molded Vegetables: Make Tomato Aspic. When gelatin is slightly thickened fold in 1 1/2 cups mixed cooked vegetables and 1/2 cup diced celery or shredded cabbage.

Campfire Girls Meet In Wednesday Session

Campfire Girls met in their regular session last Wednesday with Mrs. Cora Stinnett and Mrs. Ned Moore.

Campfire laws were carried out and new officers were elected as follows: Sealla Goodman, president; Retha Sanders, vice-president; Gene Kidd, secretary; Janis Marrie Stinnett, scribe.

A Valentine theme was carried out and Valentine games were played. The girls made Valentine dolls with lolly-pops.

Mrs. Stuart served refreshment to the following attendants: Lupe Mendoza, Gwendolyn Brown, Gene Kidd, Joy Fay Hames, Retha Sanders, Renee Moore, Annie Joyce Hines, Ida Carter, Janice Stinnett, Audrey Stinnett, Sara Kay Fomby, Herlinda Mendoza, Betty Teague, Dorothy Irwin, Kay Meason and Sandra Stuart.

Mrs. Mary Arrington returned home Tuesday after spending 23 day in a Stamford hospital. She is now in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Huling.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ferguson spent last week-end in San Antonio and Austin.

One reason why every woman tells her troubles to her husband is because they are him.

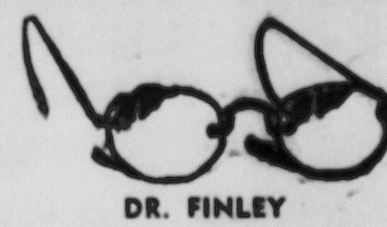

A report is being circulated that a 60 year old man has a new tooth—but it may be false.

A chip on the shoulder usually indicates that there is wood higher up.

We are more discontented from failure to satisfy our desires than from failure to satisfy our wants.

Then there's the guy who made anti-freeze by hiding her woolen pajamas.

Apparently the guys who take cold showers every morning just do so to brag about it.

Now—How about traffic on the Santa Fe?

With the cooperation of our officers, and of the employees who remained at work, Santa Fe managed to keep thousands of freight cars and all its passenger trains moving during the "outlaw strike" which began January 30th and which so severely crippled our country's rail transportation. Santa Fe could not, of course, operate at its top efficiency.

Now vital supplies, which have been piling up in freight terminals during the past several days, are starting to move.

A complex situation

There is one point, however, we know the public will understand. So complex a thing as America's transportation system cannot be turned off and on like a water faucet.

Thousands of "car days" were lost due to freight cars standing still. Even though cars are now moving it is bound to take a while before congestion is relieved and delayed cars are unloaded at their destination.

Santa Fe was able to deliver more cars to other railroads than other railroads delivered to Santa Fe. Consequently, Santa Fe now has substantially less cars on its rails than when the "outlaw strike" began. Naturally, this will result in a shortage of cars until this complex situation has been cleared.

A word to our shippers

We are doing everything possible to speed up the return to normal. We ask, however, that shippers who now need cars bear with us during this period.

Santa Fe expresses its thanks to its shippers and passengers for their patience and understanding during the trying times we have all just passed through—and also to all our people who cooperated in this emergency, many of them responding beyond their normal call of duty.

GOOD HEALTH

I DO OLDER PEOPLE
HAVE MORE COLDS
THAN YOUNG PEOPLE!

Answer to Question No. 1:

1. With advancing years common colds become less frequent, but chronic bronchitis, asthma and pneumonia are more common and more serious. It is always a good idea to consult a physician about a heavy cold.
Many diseases resemble colds.

Answer to Question No. 2:

2. Some persons are born with flat feet. Others acquire them because of toeing out, improper shoes or lack of exercise for the feet muscles. Special exercises or shoes are often prescribed by physicians to help this condition.

Answer to Question No. 3:

3. The bite of the wood tick may cause an infectious disease that has been named "Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever" in the western part of the United States. Recently a similar fever has been found in the eastern portion of the United States and is transmitted by the bite of the dog tick. A vaccine for both types of fever has been developed and the use of antibiotics is effecting cures.

McCaulley News

By VIVIAN SHORT

Frank Jackson was rushed to the Hamlin Hospital last Wednesday after suffering a recurrence of a malady which he has been subjected to for a number of years. He was operated on Monday by Dr. W. V. Ramsey of Abilene.

Bill Waldrop of Grand Prairie is on a two-weeks vacation and is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hattie Lou Waldrop, and his sister, Barbara, and his brother, John Wayne, Paul and Jack.

Those from here attending the Baptist Rally at Rotan last Wednesday were: Rev. and Mrs. L. R. Steuker, Mr. and Mrs. Albert George and J. S. Woodson.

Mrs. Reynolds of Big Spring is here with her father, Frank Jackson and Mrs. Jackson for his operation.

Cecil Eivens and family of Levelland are week-end guests of his mother, Mrs. A. M. Eivens, and his sister, Ila.

A shower was given in honor of Margie Waldrop, nee Lawlis, last Thursday at the Methodist Church. A very large crowd attended.

From here attending the Ice-landia Show in Abilene were: H. B. Parker and wife, R. L. Miers and wife and Mrs. Bud Gibson.

Those attending the funeral of Mrs. Jourigan in Roby last Tuesday were: Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fancher and Mrs. Happy McHone.

Visitors over the weekend in the home of Mrs. F. L. Rector and Mrs. Rector were: Mrs. Rector's sister, Mrs. M. P. May and her cousin, Mrs. Laura Woods, both of Hamlin.

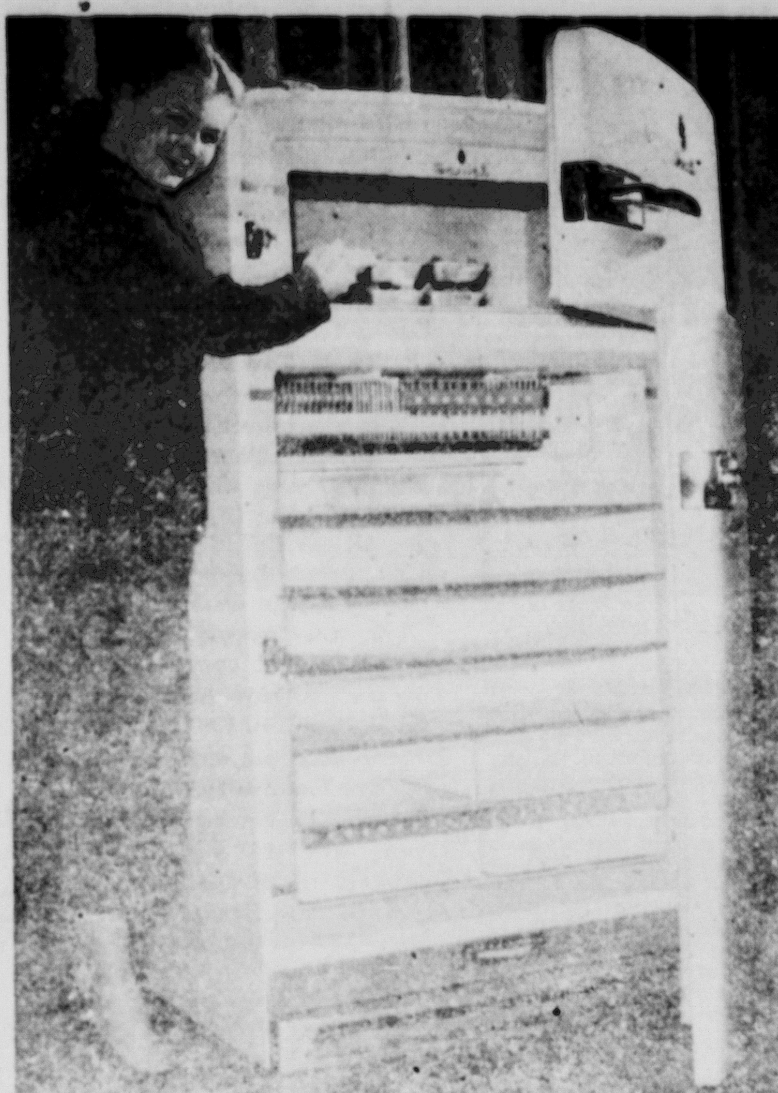

Pfc. Bill Eivens is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Eivens, over the week-end. I did not learn where he is stationed.

Visitors in the home of the Sherman Houghtons last Sunday were the following: Turner Houghton and family of Roby, L. C. Houghton and family of Abilene.

A Thought to Remember: "Boast not thyself of tomorrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth." —Prov. 27:1.

So long—I'll be newsing you!

Nature is wonderful. A million years ago nobody knew that we'd have to wear glasses; yet look how conveniently she located our ears.

Two doors—separate for the frozen food compartment and the every day utility area—is one of the striking new features of 1951 Servel gas refrigerators. Mrs. Joan Landers, Lone Star Gas Company home economist, is shown admiring high-fashion lines of the model with a storage capacity of 11 and one-half cubic feet. All new models are larger inside, smaller outside.

You'd think some fellows were trying to pay their accounts twice, the way their checks come in and then bounce right back again.

There is more truth in the statement that fine birds make fine feathers than in the statement that fine feathers make fine birds.

Fourth Sunday Sing At Calvary Church
